FORGERY.

A citizen of Dickson County, James Counterfeit Checks on Clarksville Merchants.

Considerable excitement was created in business circles last Saturday, when it was ascertained that counterfeit checks had been passed on two of the business houses on Franklin street and the attempt made to impose upon another in the same way. Early in the morning, before banking hours, Saturday, a man who had the appearance of a respectable farmer, went into Bloch Bros. dry goods store and purchased from Mr. Jerome Duncan, salesman, a coat for $5.50 and handed him a check in payment for same. The check was for $27.75 and was signed Thos. L. Harvie by W. C. Smith.

The man gave his name as W. M. Dickson. Mr. Duncan wrote the name and "due $5.50" on the bundle and sent it with the check to the cashier, who returned it with the proper change, $27.25.

Later in the morning a man of the same type went to Mr. J. G. Joseph's store and purchased from Mr. Isadore Daehring a pair of boots, price $5.00, and handed him in payment for same a check on the Northern Bank for $75.70, in favor of A. S. Bledsoe, or bearer, and signed in the same manner as the one above. Mr. Bledsoe, however, hesitated at the check, and Mr. Joseph, who had requested the man to endorse it, which he did, writing the same name as that contained in the body of the check. Mr. Joseph carried the check into the Franklin Bank, next door, and it cashed, and paid the man $70.90.

The third attempt was made at Bowling & Willson's, where he purchased from Mr. Martin Cross a pair of shoes and a hat, the two worth $7.50. For this he offered a check drawn on the Northern Bank in favor of R. M. Walker, or bearer, for $142.00, signed, Thos. L. Harvie. Mr. Smith's name not being appended as to the others. Mr. Cross took this check to the Northern Bank to be cashed, while the country-man waited in the store. Mr. Ed Munford, assistant cashier at the bank, knew the signature was not that of Mr. Harvie's and, suspecting, at least, an irregularity, refused to pay or to endorse the check called for Mr. Cross took it back to the country-man, who remarked that it was strange that the check was given him by the clerk at the factory, and he would go and see about it.

Mr. Henry Willson's suspicions were aroused, and he watched the man after he left the store. He went first to Sensing's grocery, corner First and Commerce streets, from whence he came immediately, and asked him to walk rapidly to the pleasant comer of Mr. S. A. Caldwell, on Greenwood avenue. Mr. Willson then went to Mr. Sensing and learned from him that the man was named Slayden, and lived in Dickson county. An investigation was then made into the matter. Mr. Harvey was conferred with, and the checks given at Bloch's and Joseph's were presented for payment. Their existence was discovered and all pronounced forgeries.

A warrant was sworn out for Slayden and placed in the hands of deputy sheriffs of the county, and will come to Clarksville at some time in the near future. M. Savage Esq., and G. M. Bell Esq., accompanied Mr.

Leach to Bloomfield and were present at the marriage. Mr. Leach is a young lawyer of pronounced ability. He has a clear head and a true heart and his many independence of character makes him very generally esteemed.

We are assured that the young lady whose heart and hand he has won is every way worthy of such a husband. The CHRONICLE takes much pleasure in extending its congratulations and wishing the youthful pair a long and happy union.

A Charity Fraud.

A man walking on his knees visited a number of business houses and residences in Clarksville Saturday, asking alms. He represented that his feet had been badly frosted and he was on that account unable to use them. Mr. Leach, who is a very kind and sympathetic man, called him to his office and examined his feet.

He explained to some of the astonished lodgers at the Exchange that he was a detective from Chicago, and had adopted this disguise in order to better transact his business. There was no doubt of the truth of the purpose alleged in this statement, the kind-hearted Clarksvilleans who gave him their nickels and dimes can testify that it succeeded. He left here on the down train Sunday, saying he was going to Murphy and intermediate points between those and that city. If the Memphis police should find him operating there as the man who committed this forger.

Slayden was examined before

Esq. C. D. Bailey Tuesday, on warrants charging him with the forgeries committed last Saturday and that on the Grange warehouse mentioned above. He was placed on a bond of $1,000 in each case, which amounts in all to $4,000. Up to the time of going to press the bonds had not been given.

A Wedding in the "Band."

STONE-RICHARDSON.

Married, on Thursday evening,

Jan. 15th, at 2 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father, Prof. John T.

Richardson, Mr. Robert B. Stone and Miss Katie Richardson.

A reporter of the CHRONICLE was among the few friends who witnessed of this union, and it was one of the most pleasant events of the season.

It has been his good fortune to attend for a long time. The day was one among the dreariest and most dismal of this winter; a cold and penetrating rain falling all day.

But it was a strange and beautiful incident, noticed by all present, that the bridegroom and his attendants stepped into the house the sun broke through the clouds and shed his approving smile on the proceedings.

The attendants were as follows:

Mr. Jas. R. Neblett and Miss Lucy

Caldwell, Dr. J. G. Brake and Miss

Shelley Wyatt, Mr. J. R. Richardson and Miss Laura Edmondson, Mr.

P. O. Caldwell and Miss Lucy Richardson. They entered the parlor in the order mentioned and took their places; then came the bridegroom and bride, with even and measured step, to a soft and beautiful wedding music, discoursed by Miss Mary Caldwell, and took their stand beneath the emblematic horseshoe, composed of flowers and evergreens.

Rev. B. M. Stephens performed the ceremony, and impressively, neatly and speedily was the Gordian knot tied. The assembled company were,
